
Constantine "Dino" Petropoulos

Petropoulos,

Constantine "Dino"

Webster/Ft. Lauderdale: Mon., Feb. 11, surrounded by his loving family. Born May 8, 1931 in Norwalk, Connecticut to Chris M. and Staoroula Matsouka Petropoulos, he was a graduate of Norwalk High School, Brown University, and Florida State University. On August 26, 1956, he married Harriet Ruth Davis.

A resident of Webster, he retired from Eastman Kodak in 1990. An active tennis player, fisherman, bicyclist, and avid astronomer, he enjoyed his home at Crown Point Drive in Webster and a winter residence in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Dino is survived by his wife, Harriet; four children, Mark, Greg and his wife Lee Ann, Sharon McGuckin and her husband James, and Kenneth and his wife Raquel Soaz-Perez; eight grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; two sisters, Edith Schinell and her husband John, Bertha Jones and her husband Bill; many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by brothers John and Michael.

Calling hours will be 2-4 p.m. Thursday at Willard H. Scott Funeral Home, 12 South Avenue, Webster, NY, followed by a brief Memorial service. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Hildebrandt Hospice, 2652 Ridgeway Avenue, Rochester, NY, 14626.

Willard H. Scott Funeral Home.

Published in Rochester Democrat And Chronicle on February 13, 2013
