

---

Donald B. Julian

Julian, Donald B.

Webster: Tues., April 15, 2014, at age 91. Survived by his wife Anna K. Julian; 3 daughters, Helen (Robert) Heffer, Julian (Bruce) Leonard and Donna Julian; 4 grandchildren, Christian (Jenny) Heffer, Jessica Leonard, Lauren and Brendan Keane; 2 great-grandchildren, Sean and Sophie Heffer; 2 sisters, Virginia (Edward) Pierce and Barbara (Allan) Carpenter. Predeceased by siblings, Nelson Julian, Eleanor Bragdon and Carol Ryan; granddaughter, Leigh Kilian Heffer.

Graduated from Amherst High School, Amherst, MA; Deerfield Academy, Deerfield, MA; and Massachusetts State College (currently UMass), Amherst, MA. Retired from Eastman Kodak Co., after 35 years as a Chemical Microscopist in color photography research. Active volunteer with Lifetime Care Hospice, American Red Cross, and a recipient of The President's Call to Service Award. Interests included photography and tennis.

Calling hours 4-7 PM, Tues., April 22nd, at Willard H. Scott Funeral Home, 12 South Ave., Webster. Service 2:00 PM, Wed., April 23rd, at United Methodist Church of Webster, 169 East Main St., Webster. Donations may be given to Lifetime Care Hospice, 3111 Winton Road South, Rochester, NY 14623 or United Methodist Church of Webster.

Published in Rochester Democrat And Chronicle on Apr. 20, 2014

---