
Franklin D. Saeva

Saeva, Franklin D.

Webster: Devoted husband, loving father and grandfather passed away peacefully on April 3, 2014, at the age of 75. He was the son of the late John P. and Jean R. (Giuffre) Saeva. He is survived by his loving wife of 50 years, Irene M. Saeva (Masters); daughters, Sandra and son-in-law David Markussen; Maureen and son-in-law Michael Weiss and grandchildren, Jeremiah and Audrey; Rebecca and son-in-law Anthony Barone and grandchildren, Benjamin and Allison. Predeceased also by a brother Frank who died as an infant. Also surviving are siblings; brother, Dennis R. Saeva and wife Pat; and sister, Sheila Manzella and her husband Robert.

He graduated from No. 11 Grammar School and East High School in Rochester, Bucknell University, (B. S. in Chemistry), and The University of Buffalo (Ph. D. in Organic Chemistry). He then spent a postdoctoral year at Princeton University before accepting a Chemistry research position with the Xerox Corporation. After eleven years with Xerox he joined the Research Laboratories of the Eastman Kodak Company from which he retired at the end of 2003. He was also an adjunct faculty member at the University of Rochester where he taught Advanced Organic Chemistry in the evening school for six years.

Frank was extremely proud of his daughters and grandchildren as well as his contributions to the scientific literature and to Kodak. He thanks his scientific colleagues as well as his golf and tennis friends for helping him keep intellectually and physically healthy. His love for the pursuit of scientific understanding was only surpassed by his love for his wife, daughters and their families. His basic life philosophy was simply to always try his best and be kind to others.

Special recognitions go to in-laws; Angeline Mastromatteo, Nicholas Masters and Anthony Masters for always helping in time of need.

A Memorial Service will be held Tuesday, 11: 30 AM at St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church, 783 Hard Road, Webster, NY 14580. In lieu of flowers, Frank would appreciate donations to St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church or to the at (800) 227-2345 or visit cancer.org.
