
Louis J. Sorriero

Sorriero Louis J.

Rochester: Age 68 years. Passed away on December 4, 2009, after a long courageous battle with pancreatic cancer. Predeceased by parents Peter and Josephine Sorriero. Louis was survived by: his loving wife Martha of 45 years; Son Joseph Sorriero and his wife Susan; Daughter Cynthia and husband Chuck Hughes; Grandchildren, Dylan and Emily Hughes; Brother James Sorriero; and many nieces and nephews. After receiving his masters degree in chemistry, Louis spent most of his career working as a polymer chemist at Eastman Kodak Research Labs. A distinguished inventor with: U.S. and foreign patents; and scientific journal publications. Louis was a devoted husband, father and grandfather. He will be sorely missed.

His life will be celebrated at the First Universalist Church, 150 Clinton Ave. South, on Tuesday, December 22nd, 11 AM. Contributions to Pancreatic Research, Wilmot Cancer Center of the University of Rochester.

Published in Rochester Democrat And Chronicle on December 20, 2009
