

Ralph Herter died in Texas on January 17, 2009 after a long battle with cancer. He was 81.

Ralph had been very active in civic affairs and on the golf course at his retirement community of Horseshoe Bay, TX.

He and Sybille last visited Rochester in the summer of 2007. There was the usual great reunion with several of his closest friends and associates from the Administration Division.