
Richard C. Ball(1933 - 2016)

Ball, Richard C.

Rochester: Passed away on June 25, 2016. He was born on June 7, 1933 to Richard and Ethel Ball. He is preceded in death by his former wife and friend, Pat, and beloved son, Ricky. He is survived by his dear sister, Barbara, and 3 daughters, Cherie (Rich), Debi (Rick) and Betsy (Curt) and his daughter-in-law, Ann. He had 11 grandchildren and many great grandchildren. He also had several nieces and nephews whom he loved very much. He had many dear friends, including his closest friend Charlie and his constant companion, Poppy, who misses him very much. Richard was a graduate of Webster High School and the University of Rochester. He served in the US Air Force and was stationed in Japan during the conclusion of the Korean War. Richard was employed as a physicist at Kodak for many years and retired early to pursue his own interests in the sciences. He was a voracious reader, enjoyed listening to classical music and had a lifelong interest in the exploration of consciousness.

Family and friends are invited to participate in a sunrise celebration of his life on Friday, July 15th at 7:00 a.m. near the pier in Webster Park. The family is grateful for the care that Richard received at the Hildebrandt Hospice Center in Rochester and asks that donations be made to the facility in lieu of flowers.
