

Sanford H. Ehrlich

Ehrlich, Sanford H.

Pittsford: Sanford "Sandy" H. Ehrlich. PhD, age 80, passed away on Sunday, September 4th, after a short illness. He was predeceased by his parents, Irving and Diana; and brother, Alan. Survivors include his wife of 56 years, Peppy Ehrlich; his sister, Jean Ginsburg; daughter, Alison (Scott) Manaker of Swarthmore, PA; son, David Ehrlich of West Chester, OH; grandchildren, Jacob, Eli and Ava Manaker and Ethan Ehrlich; and many nieces and nephews.

Sandy was born in Brooklyn, NY, graduated from Spring Valley High School, graduated with a B.S. from NYU and earned a PhD in Physical Chemistry from Adelphi University. Sandy served his country honorably during the Korean War and was employed by Eastman Kodak for 33 years as a research chemist. He was a long-time respected youth soccer coach who started the Pittsford Hawks Soccer Club.

Sandy will be sadly missed by family, friends, colleagues and several generations of soccer players.

A Memorial Service will be held later in October.

Published in Rochester Democrat And Chronicle on September 11, 2011
